

Kaylan Marie Whitaker

December 4, 1985 - March 16, 2019

Kaylan, 33, died at her home on Saturday, March 16th. Kaylan grew up in Cary, North Carolina, attending Athens Drive High School (class of 2004) and North Carolina State University with degrees in Biological Sciences (2008) and Microbiology (2012). Those that knew Kaylan would describe her as caring, thoughtful and full of life. Her focus was on helping people showing this both professionally, by previously serving as an EMT and a public health researcher, and personally, by preparing care packages for the homeless and standing up to bullies.

She is survived by her parents, Jon and Lee Ann Whitaker of Apex, North Carolina; her sisters and brother-in-laws, Danae and Jason Shipp of Cary, North Carolina (niece, Tenly), Caryn and Nick Dworski of Milford, New Jersey (nephew, Connor), and Kimberly and J.R. Drake of Fairhaven, New Jersey; and several aunts and uncles and cousins in both Maine and New York.

Sometime this summer, a celebration of life is planned. Those interested in attending can contact the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to National Alliance of Mental Illness (NAMI) of Wake County, 120 W Hargett Street, Raleigh, NC 27601 or the American Chronic Pain Association (ACPA), P.O. Box 850. Rocklin, CA 95677 USA.

“ My sincere condolences to Kaylan's family. Kaylan and my son dated for about a year a few years ago and we spent time with her in Raleigh and she spent time at our house in Asheville. She was fun to be around, taught us how to play cribbage, and I was impressed with her artistic and craft abilities. She gave us lovely hand-made scarves for Christmas. Wishing her family peace and lovely memories.

“ One more note - today I was cleaning out my old closet, and this photo literally fell out of something. An old book, maybe? What a pleasant surprise it was. At first I thought it was our wedding, but the note on the back says Easter 1990.

“ Hi Whitakers,

I've been thinking of you so much over the past few weeks. I'm so sorry for what you're going through.

I'm home in Randolph, sitting at our kitchen table and looking out the window at your old house. (No tree house in sight, though - surprising that my handyman dad never used the construction plans that you made, Mr. Whitaker. I still have them, in case he gets around to it in retirement.)

I uploaded all the photos of Kaylan I could find in our old albums. I'm honestly a bit surprised we didn't have more, considering she and I spent pretty much every waking hour together. So many of my earliest memories involve Kaylan - playing with all kinds of toys, watching TV, scamming my mom for snacks, coloring, running between your yard and ours, picking berries in the woods. I couldn't find any photos from our wedding, when we became each other's "waffle-y wedded" wife and husband in my parents' living room, shortly before you moved to North Carolina. I'm glad that's a memory I'll never forget.

“ Lots of great memories for Mike and I and all our family from our time in Winding River. Meeting your folks when building their home and them staying in the carriage house was so much fun. Meeting Kaylan and Danae made it more fun. Many boat rides, eating together and just enjoying the Crafts and the Whitakers being together. Kaylan was a lovely young woman. Smart, beautiful, and funny! Kaylan was in WR when we left for Texas and she gave us a big send off. Kaylan was a very caring person and we are so sad that she is no longer with us but thinking of all the fun times we had with her will be with us and keep her memory alive. We love you Kaylan!
