

Alexander Matthew DuBois

October 14, 1990 - January 12, 2019

Alex DuBois of Carrboro, NC, born on October 14, 1990 in Mountain View, CA, passed away on Saturday, January 12, 2019 at the age of 28.

He is survived by his parents, Ben and Susan, his brother Matt, his beloved Shania and their daughter Octavia, grandparents Mary Ann and Russ Hatler, grandparents Terri and Howard Coley, as well as many family relatives, and all his great friends from Carrboro, North Carolina, Colorado, California, and beyond.

Alex had a great big heart and was a very easy person to like. He had a unique ability to instantly connect with people and build friendships fast. He was always ready and willing to help a friend or stranger. Alex always had the courage to do things his way. He crammed several lifetimes of living into twenty-eight years and gained a wealth of knowledge and experience along the way. Alex used that experience to teach so many of us life lessons over the years.

In his lifetime he enjoyed many activities including being an Eagle Scout, an avid outdoorsman, and snowboard instructor. He loved fishing, his Jeep, playing guitar, his dog Zia and a good cigar. But without question, his family was most important to him especially Shania and his daughter Octavia.

Not only did Alex touch our lives, he put a great big dent in them. But now he is off on his next great adventure. Keep him in your thoughts. Hold him in your hearts. Put him in your dreams.

This is one of Alex's favorite quotes that he embodied throughout his life:

"The past is history, the future is a mystery, today is a gift... that's why it's called the present"

Please join us for a Celebration of Life in memory of Alex on Saturday, January 19th, 1-3pm at the Page-Walker House, 119 Ambassador Loop, Cary, NC 27513.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in loving memory to Alex's daughter Octavia's 529 college fund.

I am so sorry to hear of Alex's passing. I remember Alex from my Social Studies class at St. Michael's. He was always so polite and mannerly. My deepest condolences. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Unfortunately I truly and honestly know how you feel. Cherish his memory. Speak of Alex often and remember all the wonderful things that made Alex who he was. You will never get over Alex's passing but each day you can get through. I pray for your strength, comfort and peace. Denise Dworznicki

“ Alex was an exceptional friend that could put people at ease by simply looking at you, or talking to you. The calm in his voice and love in his eyes were catching, and always gave me a sense that it would all turn out ok. Alex was the first person to help me do the hard work of building my house. We spent hours upon hours working and talking, and got an incredible amount of work done. He worked hard without even seeming to be tired or ever dismayed by the amount of work to do. He was a true friend, dear to my heart and I'll always have his voice and his memory alive in my heart.
