

Alla G. Webb

July 22, 1961 - April 8, 2022

It is with great sadness that I write to inform that my beloved wife Alla G. Webb, an amazing Oil Painting Artist, died the morning of April 8, at the UNC Hospice Home. Myself, my daughter Carrie, and my friends Eunice, Horace, Frank and Rodney were with me to say 'So Long' to Alla, as she left to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Early in the year 2020, my wife Alla was diagnosed with Throat Cancer. She fought the good fight of Faith, a very courageous woman, faithful and obedient wife, a great mother, and an amazing friend to many in our community and around the world.

Alla, 60, originally from Moscow, Russia was a super talented natural artist, Oil Painting was her natural gift, she has painted many, and many paintings for friends and loved painting pets, dogs, cats, horses, and nature. She learned at an early age of 5 from her mother. Alla had great achievements in life, she pursued the American Dream, and had many achievements in life. She will be greatly missed.

Alla had many God given gifts, and the one I loved the most was her generosity toward others, she was a compassionate woman, always helping others in need, she loved volunteering in our church in all kinds of activities. Her commitment to helping others will be her enduring legacy.

UNC Hospice Home in Pittsboro was honored in receiving some of her paintings, and soon they will be displayed outside the wall of room #5 where she stayed.

Please join me this Saturday, April 9, for an open-house in my home from 4pm-10pm just to show some of her paintings, prayer, photo and video album, etc. You will meet some members of my family and friends that will stop by, this will be a very casual gathering, and Alla will be with us only in spirit, as her body will be getting ready to be cremated early next week.

Finally, I want to thank each one of you, my friends and prayer warriors, that have been with Alla and me for the past 2 years, in our ups and downs, encouraging us every step of the way, most certainly, it has brought us closer to the Lord. So I thank everyone again for everything, your generosity, prayers, and influence in this difficult time.
