

Angel Rivera Murillo

September 22, 2004 - June 3, 2024

Angel Rivera Murillo, born on September 22, 2004, in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, peacefully passed away on June 3, 2024, in Morrisville, NC. Angel was known for his vibrant personality and zest for life.

Angel had a passion for driving his 370z and could often be found cruising through the streets. He enjoyed indulging in his favorite food, pizza, and listening to reggaeton, which always brought a smile to his face.

An interesting fact about Angel was that he had a unique fashion sense and would only wear ripped jeans adorned with pandas. He was also an avid video game enthusiast and had an unwavering love for cars.

Above all, Angel cherished his family and friends, and nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his mom, Diana Murillo, his sister Nataly, and his brother Sebastian. He also adored his dogs Bruno & Fransico who were always by his side.

Angel's favorite TV show was "The Regular Show," and he possessed the amazing superpower of bringing smiles and laughter to everyone around him. His energy was contagious, and he had a way of brightening even the darkest of days.

Never one to miss a car meet with Cars & Coffee, Angel took great pride in his commitment to this passion. He had a loving relationship with his girlfriend Alayni, who added immeasurable happiness to his life.

Angel Rivera Murillo's departure leaves a void in the lives of all those who knew him. He will be remembered for his infectious laughter, kind spirit, and unwavering love for his loved ones. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

“ Angel was the definition of a Great person.

I only knew him a short time, but put a smile on my face everytime I saw him.

He will be missed.

My prayers to his family.

God has recieved an Angel back early.
