

Barbara Jean Letterman Beck

December 23, 1933 - March 5, 2016

Barbara Jean Letterman Beck went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on March 5, 2016.

She was born in Candler, North Carolina, to the late Malone and Nora Hensley Letterman. At the age of 19, she moved to Durham, North Carolina, and started work as a telephone operator for GTE. She worked her way up to District Manager of the seven South Carolina Phone Marts; when she retired, GTE hired two men to replace her.

A devout Christian, she read the Bible from start to finish every year and actively shared her faith and love of Jesus Christ. She was a kind, loving, generous, and charitable woman who helped many and was genuinely concerned for the welfare of others.

She is survived by her daughter, Beverly Beck, and granddaughter, Savannah Beck, of Cary, North Carolina, and a sister, Ethel Letterman, of Asheville, North Carolina. A celebration of life will be held later this year in Asheville, North Carolina, and her ashes will be scattered in the mountains she called home.

Memorial donations may be made to Samaritans Purse. <http://www.samaritanpurse.org/our-ministry/in-memory-of/?source=/service.php/sp/memorialprototype/page.html/ca57e3bf-fbd2-46a9-9c4d-c19946f43fbd>

Tribute Wall

SS

“ Sure do miss talking to you sweet lady. Thank you for all that you have done for us. You're gone but will never be forgotten. Love from Slater family

Sharon Slater - June 25, 2016 at 03:29 PM

AB

“ Barbara was a very kind and thoughtful person. She helped me and my children in time of need and I will always be grateful for her and Beverly's support. She's an Angel of God now. I pray for you Beverly and Savannah know that you are loved! God Bless you both.
Anne Bastille

Anne Bastille - March 08, 2016 at 12:12 PM