

Barbara vom Berg

March 25, 1958 - April 2, 2017

On April 2, 2017, we lost a part of ourselves. After a valiant battle with cancer, Barbara vom Berg went to see her son and father. There are not enough words to express the impact she has left on this world and all of us. She has touched people all over this world and every walk of life. With a smile, a truthful word or a philosophically deep conversation she could change our life's. If you were lucky enough to know her you understand our words. She is survived by her husband "Hub", her two children, Adina and Rodney, her granddaughter Arlina, her mother Ruth-Ingrid, and her brother Peter. To all of you out there who knew and loved Barbara we ask that you take a moment today to do something Barbara would be proud of. Give forgiveness you have been denying, have a conversation you have been delaying or just hug a loved one and realize how blessed you are to have them. We will ALWAYS love you, Barbara. Thank you.

Tribute Wall

RD

“ So very sorry for you loss. We all have fond memories of Barbara who lived her life with zest and enjoyed all the things life had to offer her. She was a beautiful person with a pure heart and soul. We shall miss her smile and her friendship and all the fun times we had. Our memories of her will live on and we will never forget her beautiful smile. We are glad we had the opportunity to share life's journey with her.

Rosalie and Dick - April 12, 2017 at 08:01 AM