“ Barry, I loved like a brother and not only that we had many things in common about the Lord. I could talk to you about anything on the phone for hours and hours and not be bored one minute. I still think about the times we had when we were kids, like fun times. These times ran through my head so fast I could not keep up with it. Last but not least we talked about the Bible and shared many things that kept me interested and I guess you too. Remember the time you took me to the movies and i was too young to go in and you said i will go inside and watch the movie while you stay outside. i'll come outside and tell you what is going on. When we got home our mothers asked us how was the movie, i said i had to stay outside the movie house, because i was too young to go inside. Well, your mother beat the you know what out of you and said i could been taken. I could go on and on and write a book about us.

The memory shared above was actually from my father, Spencer E. Frankel, Barry's Cousin. My fb was on and that is why it shows up as Danielle Frankel. So sorry, I don't know how to fix this. But I send my love also to Aunt Eleanor and to Uncle Barry's family. God bless you and know we are praying for you to be comforted by the Holy Spirit during this time. We surround you with faith and love always. We will see Uncle Barry again and it won't be that long the way things are looking in this earth. Shalom

My heart goes out to you Ellie and all of Barry's loved ones. Barry was a wonderful man, so kind with a generous spirit. From the first time that I met him, he was one of my favorite people. I loved his stories. They were always interesting and often funny. His faith was so strong and inspirational. He is with his beloved Christ now.
