

Bernadine Joyce King

September 1, 1945 - January 10, 2025

Bernadine King, 79, was born September 1st, 1945, in Warren, Michigan, and resided in Holly Springs, NC. She passed peacefully and comfortably at UNC Rex at 5:54 pm on Friday, January 10th, 2025, with her loved ones' farewells and close to her side.

Bernie, the matriarch of our family, is survived by her spouse Laurence King (Holly Springs), daughter Cynthia Luks (Clayton), and son Ronald Luks, Jr. (Holly Springs). Her grandchildren Madison Luks (Holly Springs) and Kierstin Turner (Holly Springs) with great grand children Kendall, Kody, and Khloe brought much joy into her life. Her son and daughter-in-laws, Kenny Turner (Holly Springs), Andrea Frese (Clayton), and Jennifer Luks (Holly Springs) were also cherished by her. Bernie's younger brothers Robert (Bobby) and Alfred (Al) Kub Jr., and sister-like cousin Karen Galia all reside in Michigan near her hometown of Warren, MI.

Bernie loved the color yellow, the smell of fresh white gardenia, and making jokes that made everyone laugh. Sci-Fi shows and traveling were her passions. Now, her final trip is a farwell to the ones that called her mom, wife, grandma, and big sis. She is on a final journey that will make her eternal in our hearts and close to her beloved maker, Jesus Christ.

Goodbye for now, mom.
