

Betty Sue Johnson

September 10, 1933 - July 29, 2024

Betty was predeceased by her mother, Fannie Allene Coates Johnson and Father, Lee Morris Johnson. Her sisters - Grace Johnson Mills and Margaret Johnson Hendrick, her brothers Charles Johnson and Morris Johnson.

Betty was an avid sports fan and played many herself, winning awards for her participation on intramural softball, tennis and bowling teams. She played golf and also loved fishing. One of her greatest joys was traveling throughout the US with close friends.

She was employed at Meredith College and North Carolina State University, and was a lifelong diehard Wolfpack and Atlanta Braves fan.

She enjoyed woodworking, arts and crafts. Even though she had no children of her own, she was everyone's "Aunt Betty," and always ready to entertain her many nieces and nephews. Christmas was her favorite holiday, in which she transformed her home into a winter wonderland that so many loved to see.

Betty was rebaptized in 2018 at Montague Lake and was a member of Swift Creek Baptist Church, where she made many friends and enjoyed helping with events as she was able.

Our sincerest thanks to Gentiva Hospice, Josephine Gentry and her incredible team of angels. You were truly a gift from God.
