“ Special prayers for his children. Wray was a kind, wonderful & talented man that would help you with whatever you needed. He painted the inside of our whole house, and could build anything you needed. We are going to miss his humor, playing jokes on folks and his zest for life! I know he's resting high on that mountain in Heaven! He will be greatly missed by these two lives he touched ~

“ I only met Ray once, just this past Saturday. He was so genuine and sweet. He just loved my 6 month son, Mason. He kept holding his hand and talking to him and saying “Oh, I just love little babies!”. He even gave Mason a dollar, because he said he was just so sweet. We put that dollar in Mason’s safe on Sunday, where it will always stay.
I hope his family is able to find peace and comfort during this difficult time.

I met Wray at Bone's Friendship Community Store.He was quite a character.Loved to sing for every one. I will miss seeing him scooting up and down Old U.S.1 and the neighboring roads. He's probably belting out a few tunes for our Lord in Heaven now! RIP Wray Lawrence.
