

Carolyn Mincey Powell

January 29, 1957 - August 11, 2021

Carolyn Powell died peacefully at Transition Life Care, Hospice Home. Carolyn was born in Lakeland, Florida but moved to Raleigh with her family as a very young girl. She is survived by her husband, John Powell, sisters Sherry Poole and Barbara Longmire (Wilbur), brothers-in-law Marvin (Virginia) and James (Joyce). She has one granddaughter, multiple nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins and last but not least, her beloved Doberman, Abbey.

Carolyn was a loving wife and a joy to be around. She always saw the good in people and helped others when needed. She loved living at the coast and spent many evenings with John on their golf cart. She always welcomed many to her home whether it was family or friends visiting. She loved sitting on the porch just her and John holding hands watching the boats go by on the intercoastal waterway. Her generosity of spirit was immeasurable. Carolyn will always be remembered for her love for family and friends and kindness to others in need.

Visitation will be Saturday, August 14, 2021 at 11:00 am at Swift Creek Baptist Church, 9300 Penny Road, Raleigh, NC 27606, with the service and burial to follow immediately at the church at 12:00 noon.

“ Carolyn was a long time friend. We have shared many fun times together. Carolyn loved with her whole heart. Had a twinkle in her eyes and merriment in her soul. I will always cherish the memories we made. She never met a stranger and always there to help someone in time of need. Go rest high on that mountain. Your work on earth is done.
