“ Lifting prayers to the family. Cassandra was such a joy to work with and will be truly missed. We have interact with one another over the past 36 years within Xerox and she was always eager to assist where needed. I was so saddened to hear of her passing but know that the kind spirit she shared with me that she is in a much better place with no more suffering or pain of this world.

Thank you family for sharing pics of your sweet "Cookie". I've heard her beautiful voice for many years but never had the pleasure to see her lovely face. Keep your spirits lifted!

“ There are many fond, funny, warm memories of Cookie. However, the one that stands out for me is 12 years ago Cookie called me and said she had tickets to see Wynton Marsalis at UNC in Chapel Hill. She was very excited as the tickets were free. I said okay when? She said "now" with so much enthusiasm. I however was not feeling it and asked "Now, like right now? Cookie, I just walked through the door from work and I still have on a suit!" I began to just whine about how tired I was. She says, "So what, Girl it's Friday - let's go!" So, we meet up and had what will always be one of the most memorable nights of my adult life. Not only did we have fun at the concert, but after the concert we decided to go dancing on a whim. We had a ball and I met my husband that night. She used to always joke that it was because of her that I got hitched and I owed her big time lol. Who could argue with that? I cannot believe Cookie is gone but I am so grateful for the gift of her friendship and all the fun times.

John and I send our love, support and prayers to the entire family. May Cookie rest peacefully in Heaven while continuing to fill our heart with joy through the memories she left behind.

*God Bless

“ I've been on this page a million times now reading the comments and wanting to write something so bad but having a hard time working through my tears....ohhhh Cookie what can I say...who's going to fight me over my husband now...nobody but us two wanted him :)...we always talked about this and laughed over and over so many times....I am soooo glad that I spent as many laughs, moments, memories as I did with you...you were so wonderful and full of life...you always knew how to keep the entertainment going no matter what...I'm going to miss you. Please keep smiling and watching over us with love.
