“ Damon,

This is your Uncle Steve and we both derived from the same genetic gene pool. We are known for our dry sense of humor during difficult times. This is one the occasions during our existence that we can not take comfort from that attribute. I wish I could find the adequate words to diminish your and Lori's sense of loss but I am unable to do so. Time will respond to this moment and as it advances, thoughts of Chad and shared memories with all your family will someday bring warmth back into your heart.

On behalf of all members of the Shumway family in the Hudson family, please accept our condolences
