“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ Family of Uncle Wen,

First, I want to say how deeply sorry I am for your loss. As his family, you all know that I worked at Sansui for a vast majority of my college years and even after college. The thing about working at Sansui was that it didn't feel like I worked for Uncle Wen at all, it felt like I was working with him. If it wasn't for Uncle Wen providing me the opportunity to work alongside him, I would not be where I am right now. He had such a positive influence to everyone around him and I can see that in all of his family. Each one of his family members, himself included, treated me as I was a part of the family and for that I am eternally grateful.

Aunty Fong, David, Sue, Tommy, if there is anything that I can do to help, please do not hesitate to contact me. Whether it is helping at Sansui or even taking care of the kids, I will be there for you just as he was for me.

*God bless and my prayers to you all,
Peter Lin*
