“ TRIBUTE BY NAOMI AGNMORKOR ABLAH NARTEY (NEE ABBEY) TO A LOVING AND CHERISHED SISTER – CHRISTIANA AGNMORKOR ABLAH BOAMAH (NEE ABBEY)

Death is not extinguishing the light. It is putting out the lamp because the dawn has come.

If we live, we live for the Lord and if we die, we die for the Lord.

Romans 14:8.

CHRISTIANA AGNMORKOR ABLA, that was my sister, my name sake, and a bosom friend who showed me unconditional love.

Agnmorkor Ablah Dromo, Aaalah, a mother for all, an epitome of Florence Nightingale, who everywhere she went and everything she touched was better than before. You added value to the family and those you interacted with in your life's journey. I can proudly say enough hearts you touched, sweet smiles you put on faces and rest you gave to aching minds. That's exactly what you showed during my marriage ceremony during the famous '83'era.

Agnmorkor Ablah would say to me 'Sister don't chop your heart', those were the comforting words and more others she shared with me to make my day anytime we had a chat. Thanks for sharing your pleasant life with me as a big sister, from that far distance you felt close. You called twice every day to find out about our welfare to the extent of celebrating Manten on mother's day and her birthdays. Our calls mostly ended with songs from the Presbyterian Hymnal and prayer either from Sister or me.

My sister travelled all the way to Ghana in 2018 just to surprise me during my retirement from active service. She came bearing gifts as usual and made all those retirement parties we attended memorable.

Sister, sister, Ablah Dromo, I am still in shock because we made plans for your return to Ghana and not this sudden demise.

I guess you are done with your earthly assignment and need to take your leave. I need not say more, only reminisce the years we spent together in bitter tears but not as regrets; it's been wonderful knowing you Sister.

Rest well, have a good sleep.

“ Tribute By Marjorie Abbey

I pay this tribute to the life of a woman who was not only our mother but also our father, our confidant, a mentor, a counsellor and a friend.

I am rarely one to easily express emotions, but I feel so deeply about memories I shared with her that words are not enough to express them.

Aunty Chrity or Mama as we usually called her was a gracious gift to the family .Mama took us under her wings.

Her personal worth on earth were her patience and the love she showed to me and others that nothing could take away from her.

Words can't explain how disheartening we are feeling now knowing we can't see, hear or talk to you again. It breaks our hearts . I will forever miss you but i know God loves you most.

I say thank you for allowing us into your life as your children.

You will always be remembered.

Rest well Mama!!

Rest in perfect Peace Aunty Christy!!

Christie I don't forget the kindness you shown me from year 1981till you left to the United States of America. I didn't hear of your sickness. Later before your demised. I called you several times but no response. I didn't have contacts of your children. Your sudden departure is a great lost to ATAA KWAME Sesemi family. Christie fare thee well. Sam Baddoo

My big cousin, but we call you Sister Christie, and you are remembered by your two nephews as "Auntie Uncle Pee's restaurant" because that is the landmark to your residence in Ghana. As a family, we were blessed to share most of your time you spent on this earth. Your warm welcome and the love you show on each visit is ever fresh in our minds. The advice and encouragement you give in time of stress will never be forgotten. You are ready to help as need the arise and are able to say no if it's not possible for you to do so. We will forever miss your beautiful miles. We have lost a jewelry but heaven has gain an Angel so we cannot question God. We pray that the Almighty God will keep you till we meet again. Fare thee well. The Williams family.
