

David Eugene Mayes

June 2, 1955 - September 2, 2022

David Eugene Mayes, 67, of Cary, North Carolina went to be with his Lord on Friday, September 2, 2022. While he was born on June 2, 1955, he was born again when he was 19 years old accepting Jesus as his Lord and Savior (Romans 10:9-10). He confessed that he was a sinner and received forgiveness and new life from Jesus (John 3:14-17, 1 John 1:9). David later studied for the ministry at Appalachian Bible College and pastored for twelve years. He also worked at various power plants including Shearon Harris in New Hill, North Carolina.

David is survived by his devoted wife Kathy; his son Jason and daughter-in-law Hyeonsu along with grandchildren Nathan, Andrew, and Ian; his brother Steven and sister-in-law Susan, and their children David and Erin; and many other close friends and relatives. He is preceded in death by his parents, Bertram Mayes and Nancy Evans.

David's funeral will be at College Park Baptist Church, 910 Twyla Rd, Cary, North Carolina on Saturday, September 10, at 3:00pm. The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 3:00 pm. Afterwards, there will be a graveside at Wake Memorial Park. The family gratefully declines flowers, but donations may be made in David's honor to the College Park Baptist Church Missions Fund.

“ David was a remarkable man in many ways. He was very humble, but I could always count on his informed decisions on both technical and personal issues. He was a smart man with a not-so-hidden agenda to have a positive outlook and do good things, and the world will miss him!

“ I have so many memories David was the youth pastor when my children were young at Old Kanawha Baptist church. I don't think I'll forget the youth trip to thr Nags Heads one summer. We went with a church from Elyria Ohio.
Many sweet memories. We continued friendship he was hard working and love the Lord. I'll never forget the impact he had on my life. Praying for Kathy my dear friend and his family.

“David was always there if I ever needed help around the church. He would help with anything on the property; his know-how was priceless and his enthusiasm for serving the Lord was infectious. He was generous, both with his time and money, and he was thoughtful towards others. You couldn't be around David long without seeing that Jesus was primary in his life. He will be missed! But I know that he is finally home.
