

Dwayne Mussler Geidel

September 18, 1967 - October 27, 2024

Dwayne Mussler Geidel, 57, of Cary, North Carolina, passed away on October 27, 2024. Born on September 18, 1967, in St. Louis, Missouri, he was the beloved son of Harold and Joan Geidel, who preceded him in death. Dwayne is survived by his devoted wife of 25 years, Cheryl; his cherished children, Erik and Allison; his sister Kristi and brother-in-law Brian Abney; his sister-in-law Jennifer House; and his dear nieces, Jillian Abney, Kaila Curry, and Hailey Griffen.

A graduate of the University of Missouri with a degree in Fine Arts, Dwayne dedicated 18 years to his career at Doe & Ingalls (later Thermo Fisher). Beyond his profession, he was deeply involved in scouting for over 30 years, sharing his love for the outdoors, history, and art. Dwayne had a remarkable ability to elevate conversations with his deep knowledge of art history, U.S. history, music, literature, and film, enriching the lives of everyone around him with his insights and passion. His life was a testament to his love for family, his creative spirit, and his enduring appreciation for nature and culture. Dwayne will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
