Oh how I loved sweet Edie. I didn't get to see her much but I can easily remember her smile and laugh. Heaven is richer with her there. We'll see each other again my friend but until then we'll keep in touch with Jeff and make sure he's ok. You were so deeply loved by so many ❤️

Edie was a strong and kind person. Full of life and cheer. She was a leader in our college Christian fellowship "Alpha Omega". I remember her laughing and enjoying her time at Atlantic Christian College. May the Lord bless her family, friends, and all involved.

“ Edie and I met at Atlantic Christian College and we discovered that we shared the same birthday (March 7). She was a very kind person and a devout Christian whose faith was an inspiration to me and to many who knew her. While those of us in Christ know that we will see her again, she will be missed in his life. Thanks be to God for her.

“ When Edie walked by or into a room, she just lit it up in our college days. She always had a kind word, and got on me a time or two when I wasn't so kind to someone. She was an awesome leader of Alpha Omega, and was so well respected for her faith and leadership. The world is a lesser place without her. Prayers for peace and comfort to her family.
