

Eleanor Ann Brown

November 24, 1940 - January 24, 2016

Eleanor Ann Brown (née Hinson) 75, of Cary, NC, passed on January 24, 2016 at Duke University Hospital in Durham NC. Born November 24, 1940 in Conway, SC she was the daughter of the Rev. Jasper and Katie Hinson (née Carter) of Clinton, now deceased. She was preceded in death by her infant sister Linda Elaine Hinson and adult siblings CSM Francis Honore Hinson and Mrs. Carolyn Bridgeman.

Ann was a graduate of Holly Hill High School in Holly Hill, SC where she played trombone in the first school band. A devoted Southern wife for 33 years, she was also the loving mother of two children. Family was everything to her and there was nothing she would not do for hers. When Ann became a grandmother, it was a role she truly relished and in turn she was greatly loved by her grandchildren. She had a keen interest in politics and was a passionate supporter of animals, especially dogs, with which she was almost never without.

Already dearly missed, Ann is lovingly remembered by her children: Kathy Ann Brown, of Morrisville NC, Richard Devereaux (Dev) Brown and wife Adalita Wilma Brown, of Cary, NC; grandchildren: Drusilla Miréille Brown and Atticus Cade Brown; brother: Avery Jasper Hinson, of St. George, SC; sister: Brenda and Bill Graham, of Rockingham, NC; and other family and friends. A Memorial Service will be held at 6 p.m. on Saturday, January 30, 2016 at The Matthews House, 317 W. Chatham St, Cary, with family to receive friends afterwards. Flowers are welcomed; however, memorials may also be made to

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Ms. Brown never failed to offer her warm smile to me whenever I saw her. May her smile live on in our hearts and memories. And may those memories comfort her family in their grief.

“ A few years ago when I was in grad school Bryan got me a puppy for Christmas. I took him to the vet and found out he had parvo. The vet told me it would be $150 a day for just the IV and maybe it would be best to let him go. I told her NO! If you guys would allow me to make payments I wanted the treatment for Bow. After nearly 2 weeks they released him and he lived a long happy life. When I went to make my first payment the receptionist said we would prefer you pay the whole thing. I told her how I had made an arrangement with the vet to set up a payment deal. She said you do realize your bill is only $50. I asked how could that be true. She told me that Ann Brown came in and paid the bulk of the bill. She did that with not telling me about it and never accepting the acknowledgement that she had done so. To do something so SWEET and KIND would have ruined her image. (LOL) The world has lost a shining light. I so love her

I had the privilege of knowing Eleanor for the past 4 years. She was a very special lady. She always made me laugh. You never knew exactly what was going to come out of her mouth because she had this incredible wit. She was so funny. She was the kind of person that you so enjoyed being around. She definitely brightened your day especially if you weren't having a very good one.. By the time she left your day was so much better because of her. She usually left you laughing in stitches.

There will never be anyone like her. She was truly an amazing person. She will be missed.. Cindy
