“ Sweet, fun Ginger! I love you, my lifelong friend. I remember SO many great times with you at your house or mine. I'm sure it's okay to 'tell' now. We snuck out one of your bedroom windows many times. How we got from the second floor to the first, I don't know. We did though, and didn't do much but walk around the street. Wade Jr. came out one time and caught us. I remember the summers we spent going to wherever my dad had finished a hotel. We had the 'honor' of putting out the Gideon Bibles in every room along with the towels, K-lenex, little soaps, toilet paper, and answering the 'switchboard.' We also got into our share of mischief. I hear that you and a friend served Wade Jr. a can of dog food when he came home and demanded dinner. He said he really liked it and wanted more so, you gave him more! LOL, That's my Ginger! I'm sorry that it has taken me so long to post, I have been having a difficult time just dealing with the realization that you are gone from our lives. I do know that you are now with Tim and Jesus and are living the greatest life ever. I love you, Ginger, please don't ever forget that, my always huge, smiling friend. I will see you someday and we can relive our shenanigans.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences. I am an old classmate and friend of Gingers. We had quite a time together back in Junior High and High School . Ginger was such a beautiful soul, inside and out. I will forever remember that beautiful smile, just daring anyone to challenge her day. May the Love of God embrace each of you during this difficult time, and may you find comfort in knowing her life has just begun. She has received her Eternal life now. Heaven definitely gained a "Golden" Angel! She will be missed and forever in our hearts. Much love and prayers, Pam (Sutherland) Wright
