“ Met Greg about 4 years ago & found him to be a class act in many respects. As a Christian he was a wonderful image bearer. Now in heaven he is a beautiful trophy for God.

“ Dear Hatcher Family,
First I want to offer my deepest sympathy. I worked with Greg at SAS and started as a new kid on the block. He was very helpful and patient with me. Greg was a real southern gentleman. He told me of his children and family. I could tell he was a good dad and family man. I saw Greg a few times after he left SAS and he was always just as kind and friendly as always. The world was a better place because of his life on earth, but now his rewards are great in heaven. With a heavy heart an old friend Mary Ann Jeleniewski
