

James Harold Boylan Jr.

May 7, 1945 - February 23, 2021

James Harold Boylan, Jr., 75, of Raleigh, North Carolina passed away February 23, 2021 at Abbotswood of Stonehenge, Raleigh, North Carolina from complications of liver cancer. He was born on May 7, 1945 in White Plains, New York, son to James and Betty (Bragdon) Boylan.

Mr. Boylan attended EC Glass High School in Lynchburg, VA. He received his BA from the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia. Mr. Boylan was employed as a CPA for Ernst & Young (formerly Ernst & Whinney), subsequently employed as controller for over 20 years at Troxler Electronic Laboratories in Research Triangle Park, NC. He served many years on the Board of Directors of the RTP Federal Credit Union. Jim loved golf, was an avid Yankee baseball fan, loved crossword and jigsaw puzzles, and had a wonderful dry sense of humor and great laugh.

Mr. Boylan is survived by his sisters: Beverly Platt of Illinois and Bonnie Boylan of Virginia, brother-in-law Jim Tobias, and many nieces and nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews.

He is predeceased by his sister, Betty Tobias.
