

James P. Connolly

March 9, 1930 - April 14, 2025

We celebrate the life of James P. Connolly, who passed away on April 14, 2025, at the age of 95. James lived a rich and meaningful life, marked by love, service, and deep devotion to his family. From 1951 to 1953, he proudly served in the United States Army, carrying with him a sense of duty and perseverance that would define his life.

Married for 70 years to his beautiful wife, Millie, James was a loving husband, a proud father, a doting grandfather, and a joyful great-grandfather. His passion for ice hockey — especially for the Boston Bruins and later the Carolina Hurricanes — was a constant source of happiness throughout his life.

James is survived by his son, Joseph Connolly, and his daughter, Patricia Quindlen; his grandchildren, Alix Connolly Kodish, Meaghan Quindlen Hanson, and Stephen Quindlen; and his great-granddaughters, Thea Hanson and Ilyana Kodish. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and resilience that will continue to inspire those who loved him
