

James Talmadge Mills

September 8, 1935 - August 4, 2023

James Talmadge Mills, 87, of Apex, North Carolina, on August 4, 2023 after a brief illness. He passed away at home surrounded by family.

Talmadge was preceded in death by his parents; W. C. and Daisy Wagoner Mills, his wife, Bonnie Lou Holland Mills, his son Steven Talmadge Mills, and three siblings.

Talmadge is survived by three children; Gina Mills Farringer (Jeffrey), Amy Mills Brenner (Jerry) and Vincent James Mills (Tonya); six Grandchildren; Talmadge Jeffrey Farringer (Christina), Garret Jackson Farringer (Sarah), Callen Yvonne Farringer, Christianna Faith Mills, Gabreille Hope Mills and Isabella Patricia Mills and his beloved beagle Zippy.

Talmadge grew up in Apex, NC, and attended Apex High School. He was instrumental in setting up Little League and Pee Wee Football in town, and remained very active for over 20 years. He served as a town Commissioner, and was a Volunteer Fireman for 25 years. He was a dedicated member of the Apex Jaycees and then the Lions Club as well. He retired from A.G. Boone company after 25 years of service. After retirement he worked for a number of years at RBC Center, now PNC Arena, and the Durham Bulls as a ticket taker. Positions which allowed him to get out and about and not get bored during retirement. When he wasn't at one of the parks, you could find him on a local golf course. A pastime at which he excelled and he enjoyed his entire life.

Our family is grateful to know Talmadge is finally at rest with Bonnie, his wife of 67 years.
