

Joan Stout Perrotti

September 24, 2022

Joan Stout Perrotti, 89, passed away on September 24, 2022 in her home in Cary, North Carolina. Born and raised in New Rochelle, NY, Joan was the firstborn child of Estelle Marie Dennerlein and John J. Stout, and eldest sister to Jack Stout (Cazenovia, NY), James Stout (laid to rest in Cape Cod, MA), and Judy Patafio (North Myrtle Beach, SC).

Joan graduated from New Rochelle High School in 1951. She enjoyed a storied career as an American Airlines flight attendant after graduating from stewardess school in 1954. On September 29, 1956, she was married to Nicholas T. Perrotti in Mount Vernon, NY (laid to rest in New Rochelle, NY, in 2015).

Joan's home on the Jersey Shore (Ortley Beach, NJ) was the backdrop for many happy family memories between 1975 and 1996. She was an avid knitter and storyteller — and it's unclear whether her afghans or stories were longer. She loved her family deeply and kept in touch with an impressive pool of relatives over the years. One never needed to wonder what was on Joan's mind, as she freely shared her point of view.

Joan was the proud mother of three daughters, Susan Pasquariello (Roswell, GA), Lisabeth Tunell (Raleigh, NC), and Pamela Mattocks (Chapel Hill, NC). She is survived by her daughters, seven grandchildren (Devon McGinnis, Trey Pasquariello, Morgan Tunell, Erin Tunell, Nicholas Pasquariello, Emma Mattocks, Luke Mattocks), and two great-grandchildren (Miles and Josephine McGinnis).

There will be a memorial service at a later date, to be scheduled. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Center for Volunteer Caregiving. Center for Volunteer Caregiving. <https://volunteercaregiving.org>

“ Learning Joan was a flight attendant explains so much! She always made sure things, from the home to dinners were always 'just right!'. Sincerest condolences - Little Nancy
