

Johann Wolfgang Pollich

April 12, 1942 - March 5, 2017

Johann Wolfgang Pollich, of Cary, North Carolina passed away Sunday, March 5, 2017 at Rex Hospital.

John, as he was known to all his friends, was born in Apatin, Yugoslavia on April 12, 1942 to his beloved parents Michael and Katharina Pollich. When he was a teenager, he and his family migrated to the United States and settled in Philadelphia. He later became a US citizen. After High School he became a Master Mechanic and married the love of his life. He and his family moved from Philadelphia to Monroe, North Carolina in 1981. In 2011 they moved to Cary, North Carolina.

He is survived by his wife of over 50 years, Mary Pollich; daughter Johanna, her husband Dennis and their 2 children Nikki and Jennifer; his sister Katharina Holinger, her husband Philipp, their 2 children Bruce and Kim and their families; his sister Margaret Pollich and her daughter Carina Wulff.

We will celebrate his life at 6:30 on Wednesday March 15, 2017 at St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church in Cary, North Carolina.
