“ My condolences to the Farritor Family on the passing of Jack. I remember Jack & Bridget being the little guys always running around at the house on Central Park as a kid. Then I saw what a polished young man he grew into when he visited us at EIU & later seeing him at work around the CBOE. He’s having a cold one with his Dad now. May he rest in peace.

“ An absolute pillar of a human being. Strength, honor, courage, unconditional love, boundless humor, dedication, and the heart of a Lion. Save us a place at the Lord's table Jack. You gave us all you had. Well played my friend....

“ Jacko was such an amazing father. He and I both share a passion for real estate. I know he worked relentlessly to provide the best life he possibly could for his family. In addition, he was a wonderful person. In college, I needed a place to live in during a summer internship. He, his dad, Pat, and step mom, Charly welcomed me in with open arms. To this day, we love each other endlessly and always will. You're the best, Jacko. The strongest person I've had the honor to know. I hope you are at peace now and enjoying lots of VO with Pat.

“ So many amazing and fun memories of Jack! I always enjoyed his late night Chicago pizza orders after the bars and the impromptu trips to the casino! You were a great friend to Mike and I and we will miss you so very much! See you some day again my friend. Until then please watch over us and try not to laugh too hard!

“ Tyrone...hoping you are getting some time with Grammie, hopefully she is making you some Campbell's Chicken Noodle Soup we used to love. Or perhaps putting some pennies down on the train tracks with her. We loved that too. You having a VO with Dad would be a happy thought too. Maybe the legendary John McGraw is taking you to the donut place in heaven where you can pick from a whole wall of donuts like we were so amazed to be able to do on Saturday mornings with him. Whatever you are doing, I pray it is peaceful as you deserve it. As I said to you before you left, you are loved near and far. ❤️❤️❤️

“ A few more pictures to continue to pay tribute to Jacks beautiful life. I remember the day Jack was born as I often told him and I must say those 46 years went by way too fast.

Jacks fight and courage these past two years were so impressive to witness. Multiple surgeries, seemingly countless rounds of chemo and radiation. Jack did everything he could to continue his life here on earth.

It's comforting to know you are now in Gods hands reunited with many loved ones.
