“ My son David was a phenomenal husband to Heather, most loving daddy in the world to Jack, William, Annabelle and Benjamin and giver of the best hugs to his mother and sister Megan. I knew he was special to his family but now I know he made a difference to many people. When you smell a pumpkin spice candle or split a pizza (or pizzas !) with friends, when you're driving to the beach with your family or when it starts to get cold at night, those are good times to think of him . He was one of the good guys.

Dave was awesome coworker. He was one of the reasons I got the job at BMC in 2018. I quickly found he was a devoted husband and dad. He made me laugh on a daily basis. He was my gym partner and put up with all my crazy workout plans. He always talked about his family and the love was endless. He loved going to the gun range which I wanted to go but never made it. My prayers are with the whole family. He made his love for his kids and wife front in center. I can't speak highly enough about Dave. Enjoy Heaven as your watching over your family. You will be missed brother. God bless. Joel Supplee

“ I first met John when he got a job at the place i was working at. He laughed at my corny jokes and we were friends ever since. I will miss going to watch wrestling and our daily texts trying to make each other laugh. John adored his family and will be missed by anyone fortunate enough to know him.
