

Juan Vigil

May 9, 1957 - April 6, 2024

Juan was a truly remarkable person, whose life was filled by his many passions and pursuits. He was surrounded by the love of his family and friends when he passed away.

Juan had a deep love for golfing and taking leisurely strolls, which brought him great joy and fulfillment. He was also a lifelong learner and had a strong desire for personal growth, which was evident in his continuous pursuit of knowledge. His deep faith was the cornerstone of his life, providing spiritual guidance and a strong connection to God.

Juan was preceded in death by his parents, Mercedes Ruiz-Torres and Manuel Vigil, and his brother Mauricio Vigil. His siblings Yony, Marta A., Jose L., and Eduardo Vigil, as well as a wide circle of friends and relatives, were deeply touched by his loving spirit and kindness.

Juan shared a deep and profound bond with his beloved wife, Julia, for nearly four decades. Their partnership was marked by shared experiences, abundant love, and countless memories. Together, Juan and Julia explored the world, nurturing a shared curiosity about diverse cultures and new places. Their family was built on a solid foundation of love, and they supported and guided their children, Julissa and Isaac, with great dedication.

While Juan's absence will be felt deeply by all who loved him, they take comfort in knowing that he continues to watch over them. The family kindly requests donations to Outreach via the Cary Alliance Church in lieu of flowers, which uses these funds to assist those in need. Juan's legacy of love, curiosity, and faith will forever inspire those he leaves behind.
