

Judith Lynn Goldberg

January 31, 1947 - May 27, 2019

Judy Goldberg passed away peacefully on May 27, 2019 at Hock Family Pavilion – Duke Homecare and Hospice.

Judy was born in Brooklyn, NY on January 31st, 1947. She married Allan Goldberg in 1970 and shortly thereafter relocated to Suffern, NY to start a family. They eventually retired to Cary, North Carolina to be closer to their Son Darren and Grandchildren, Alex and Evan.

Judy was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She is survived by her beloved husband of 49 years, Allan Goldberg, her son's Darren and Brian Goldberg and her brother Donald Shanner. She also leaves behind two grandchildren, Alex and Evan.

Judy loved her family, the New York Yankees, traveling and shopping. She never forgot her Brooklyn roots and always lit up when she would meet people from her old stomping grounds. She had a great smile and an uncanny ability to make friends with total strangers to bond over things like Brooklyn or the Yankees.

A memorial service is planned for 2:00 PM on May 29, 2019 at Wake Memorial Park in Cary, NC.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in Judy's name to Duke Homecare and Hospice.

Tribute Wall

“ Although we mourn the loss of our long time treasured friend Judy, we are so thankful for the 40 year friendship we were lucky to have with her and Allan. We will always remember the dinners, social events, New Years celebrations and the sharing in each others lives for both the sad but mostly joyous occasions. Volleyball games, hour long phone conversations, shopping excursions, will always be remembered, but we will miss most the comfort of being Judy's friend. Our love and thoughts are with Allan, Brian, Darren, Alex and Evan

“ After dinner at Garden State Mall -- Allan and Nat walking together talking markets, I suppose. Judy and I walking on our own, talking about a myriad of topics. Miss that a lot.
