

Leticia Bayani Corey

March 28, 1947 - March 1, 2024

Leticia "Tish" Corey, 76, died peacefully on Friday, March 1, 2024 at WakeMed Hospital in Raleigh, NC.

She was one of eight kids born to Jose and Florencia Bayani and grew up in Manila, Philippines. She earned a nursing degree from Arellano University and worked for 10 years in Tuebingen and Stuttgart, Germany. In the US, she worked primarily at Rex Hospital for almost 30 years.

Tish was known for her kindness at work and in her Cary, NC neighborhood where she lived for 30+ years. When not at work, she loved doing gardening around the house and was a fantastic cook of Asian foods. She would often cook for people at work and her neighbors. The world has lost one of the nicest people anyone will ever know.

Tish is survived by her husband of 47 years, Taylor, and her brother Fred in Toronto, Canada, and her sister Annie in Los Angeles.

At Tish's request, there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

GE

“ She was the kindest, most thoughtful person I ever knew. She was always thinking of and helping others to bring joy. She will be missed.

Geoff - March 05, 2024 at 06:35 PM

KR

“ Lettie was such a giver. She knew how to give to others and make them happy. Memories of her will always be about what great things she did for others. She will be sorely missed.

Kitley Rainwater - March 05, 2024 at 04:34 PM