“ Mrs. Ferrell was one of the most decent and loving human beings ever encountered. She instinctively knew what was right and what wasn't. Every day her life was a lesson to us all. And we likely won't frequently see the likes of people with her character again. Kay Taylor and family.

“ My first thought when I heard of Cousin Louise's passing, was "the Lord is in great need of a mighty wonderful angel", because Louise was forever kind and loving and sweet. Kind of sad irony that she passed on the day that would have been my own Mama's 87th birthday...the cousins are celebrating with the Lord now! My heart goes out to Renee and Charles, we have all been blessed with wonderful mamas, and I know how deep the hurt goes. Our saving grace is knowing that they both are with loved ones and with their Lord and Savior, where we always knew they would go. We will always love you, Louise.

“Kay Taylor is surely correct. She was indeed my second mama in Carpenter. She was always so nice and kind. She always had a good word, and very patient. Nancy and I played together a lot at her house. Renee', I know you and Charles are going to be lost for a while, but we all know we will see them again. I can't seem to get her off my mind today even though I am working. I am praying for all of you. Love to all.

We know that all of the heavens are rejoicing to receive Mrs Ferrell. A life worthy of celebration, passing in her 100th year. She will leave a huge void, but we know she was welcomed with huge arms by her husband to spend eternity with Jesus. Our hearts go out to the family that must say, "Goodbye for now."
