She leaves behind a legacy as the proud owner of Apex Pharmacy for two decades, providing dedicated service to her community. Throughout her life, she remained a devoted supporter of the UNC Ram's Club for 60 years and a passionate Tar Heel fan.

Her commitment to her faith was unwavering, as she was a lifelong member of Salem Baptist Church, where she also skillfully played the organ for an impressive 65 years. Mrs. Perry's dedication to her church and its community was truly admirable and inspiring to all who knew her.

Margaret is survived by her loving sons, Jimmy Perry (Lisa) of Apex, and Mike Perry (Liz) of Acton, MA, as well as her brother, Bill Booth (Mary Lou) of Apex. She will be deeply missed by her adoring grandchildren: Adam Perry, Brooke Perry, Ethan Perry, and David Perry; and her six cherished great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Calvin Perry, with whom she shared a lifetime of love and cherished memories.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that memorials be made to the Salem Baptist Church, 1821 N. Salem St., Apex, NC 27523, with the memo indicating support for the Music Ministry, reflecting Margaret's deep appreciation for music and worship.

During this time of grief, the family finds solace in knowing that Margaret Booth Perry touched the lives of many and will be fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her. “ I was both saddened and rejoicing when I got the call about Aunt Margaret’s passing. I have so many memories of her from my childhood to today. I loved spending time talking to her about everything from the TarHeels or southern gospel music to my kids and grandkids and everything in between. Aunt Margaret was my favorite aunt and I will truly miss calling her to catch up or share a story about our family. I am comforted to know she has fought the good fight and is now in Heaven with our family and friends that have gone before. I pray the family will rejoice in this truth and will draw strength from it. We love you all. Perry and Suzanne Mason and family
