

Margaret Mary (Sallie) Swanson

August 15, 1927 - March 11, 2021

Margaret Mary (Sallie) Swanson died Wednesday March 10, 2021.

Sallie was born on August 15, 1927, in Hubbard, Nebraska to Peg and Jack Sherlock. She was the second oldest child among five siblings: brother Pat Sherlock, sisters Dorothy Anderson, RoseMary Shiffrar and Alice Henry. Sallie was the wife of the late Walter Henry Swanson for 47 years. She was the mother of Mary Liz LaRosa (Ed), Katie Stoaks (Grant), Frank Swanson, Walter Swanson (Sarah) and John Swanson. Sallie was the grandmother of Taylor Stoaks (Heath), Emily LaRosa, Claire LaRosa Eide (Alex), Sarah Swanson, Patrick Swanson, Amelia and Madeleine Swanson. She was preceded in death by Hank Swanson.

Sallie was proud of her time as a stewardess for Northwest Airlines. After raising her family, Sallie was employed as an Executive Assistant at Best Foods in Cleveland, Ohio.

Besides being a voracious crossword puzzle enthusiast, she enjoyed her bridge games, breakfast groups and volunteering on the St. Michael's counting crew.

A mass of Christian burial will take place at noon on Saturday, March 13 at St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the St. Michael's Pre-School Angel Fund to benefit families in need.

“ So sorry to hear that we have lost our dear friend Sallie. I admired her independence and positive outlook. But mostly I appreciated her kindness, her humor, and her good nature. I truly enjoyed her funny stories about events in her life. when we played bridge. My sincere condolences to her family. Wishing them comfort at this sad time,
