

Maria Alexandra Streight

May 31, 1986 - May 7, 2025

Maria Alexandra “Alex” Tomos Streight passed away peacefully on May 7, 2025, in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. She was born on May 31st, 1986, in Bucharest, Romania.

She was preceded in death by her mother in law, Carol Miller Streight, and her grandfathers Dobre Tudor and Alexandru Tomos.

She is survived by her husband Kevin, her son Alexander, her daughter Ella, her mother Andreia, her father Larry, her brother Mihnea, her grandmothers Mariana and Elena, her uncle Dani and aunt Simona, her uncle Adrian, her aunts Adriana and Mihaela, her beloved cousins Razvan, Bogdan, Claudia and Andrei, her father in law Steve and Susan, her brother in law Brian and his wife Dana, aunt Judy Miller, uncle Peter Buscemi, and many extended relatives and friends.

She married the love of her life, Kevin, on May 17, 2014 and together they welcomed a son Alexander Miller Streight and a daughter Ella Caroline Streight. She last resided in Fuquay Varina, NC.

Alex graduated from Meredith College with a bachelor degree in International Business and Finance. She spent many years in retail as a Buyer specialist and most recently managed large inventories for a popular auto parts chain. Alex was the owner of Cary Lifestyle Magazine between 2019 and 2021. She had an exceptional eye for style and detail, with a rare ability to curate looks and spaces that felt both effortless and elevated. Whether assembling the perfect outfit, selecting décor for her home, or choosing makeup palettes for a client, she had an intuitive sense of what worked best. She approached shopping like an art form, always knowing where to find the perfect item and how to bring everything together with polish and flair. Beyond her love of beauty and design, she was passionate about animal rights and had a soft spot for homeless cats and dogs, often advocating for their protection and care.

Alex was a light in this world, and she will always be admired for her strength, determination and love for her family.

Because of you Alex, we believe in angels and the afterlife and know that we will see you again one day. Because of you Alex, we know that love never dies.

“ I met Maria back in 2006-7 in Accounting at Meredith. We shared many classes as we had the same major. There was a lot of group projects and papers together and studying for tests were always more fun with our group, mostly because of her. She was smart, sassy and full of life and SO funny...we laughed a lot. We both moved out of state, her Kansas and me Alabama and Georgia. But we kept in touch through social media. We had kids around the same time and sent each other Christmas cards. She was always in touch, but unfortunately we never got together in person. Life was crazy and busy and you always think you have time. I send my condolences to her family, husband and children. She will always be with you and will always be loved. She was an angel on earth and will now be the most fashionable angel in heaven 💖

“ I met Alex after my sister passed away. I don't think there's a single person in this world that loved my sister more than Alex. My sister told her everything. Alex was her safe place. For that, I will always be so grateful.

I remember the last time I saw my sister. She was stopping by to see me...but she called to say she wanted to spend more time with Alex and her family. Of course, I was like “no worries.” I'm so glad they got to spend that extra time together. Their last holiday season together on this side of Heaven.

They both loved decorating and Crumbl. They both had the deepest of hearts for pets.

Alex was one of the strongest, most tenacious people I have met. She was smart, loving, and loyal. This world will miss her bright light.

I'm sure she's with my sister, enjoying a marg and a cookie while watching over Kevin, Ella, and Xander.

Kevin, may God bless and keep your family today, during this difficult time, and always.

“ Alex and I met in a moms group in KC. She had Xander and I had coen. We use to hang out all the time when she lived here. We also kept in touch through Facebook up until she passed. 😞 she was so caring and reached out about my brother when she was wasn't feeling great. That showed me how much of a friend she was. I remember she also had hopes to go to disney world with us when she beat cancer. She was so excited and I was so excited to talk to someone about it as well. I looked forward to seeing her again and will always consider her a good friend. She reminded me so much of myself. She was a great mom and wonderful wife. My condolences to Kevin, the kids, her fur babies and family. She was a wonderful soul and will never be forgotten. I am so sorry for your loss. 😞

“ I will always carry Alex in my heart—as a fierce fighter with unmistakable strength, lighting up every room with her inspiring courage. In our time together, I witnessed not only her bravery but the extraordinary depth of her love, her determination to protect those she cared for, and her unwavering hope—even on the hardest days. She met hardship with purpose, fear with honesty, and each moment with intent and desire to live fully—not just for herself, but for her dear family.

Her light is enduring, shining brightly in the way she faced each moment with unmatched resilience, fueled by her boundless love and the quiet wisdom she carried. That undimmable light lives on in you—her family—in every life she touched, including mine, and in the beauty she created in word, presence, and deeds.

May we feel your warmth, Alex, in the smiles of those you loved so deeply, in the golden glow of summer sunrises and sunsets, in the rhythm of the ocean, in the flower blooms, and in every quiet moment that wraps around us like your gentle embrace. Though we walk forward with heavy hearts today, they are forever changed, we carry you with us—in our strength, in our love, and in every memory that bears your name.

Your story doesn't end here. It lives on in every life you touched, in the love you gave so freely, and in the radiant light you left behind. You are forever part of us, and forever remembered—with honor, with gratitude, and with endless love.

May your journey now be smooth among the stars, peaceful and free, dear Alex!
