

Marisa Rose Cashin

April 21, 1967 - July 12, 2019

Marisa-Rose Cashin, Ed.D. age 52, passed away peacefully after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Marisa was born in Denville, NJ.

Marisa was a National Board Certified Teacher and a life-long learner. She received her undergraduate degree from Montclair State University, graduate degree from East Carolina University and her doctorate from North Central University in Curriculum & Instruction, each time graduating with honors.

Marisa has been teaching in the Wake County Public School System (WCPSS) since 2007, first at Cedar Fork Elementary, and later teaching fifth grade at Hortons Creek Elementary. During her time with the WCPSS, Marisa served as a mentor working with beginning teachers to help them develop skills needed to have success in the classroom.

Marisa enjoyed participating in many extracurricular activities with “her kids.” One of her favorites was “Girl Power.” She was often seen at student sporting events, plays, or recitals. She always felt it was important to support “her kids” outside of the classroom as well.

Marisa was an active member of St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church in Apex - she especially enjoyed being on the Activities Committee and serving as a Eucharistic Minister.

Marisa is survived by her loving husband of 26 years, Peter; her son Marc, daughter-in-law Katie and granddaughter Zoey; her mother Rose DiEllo; sister Julia Scotto; father-in-law Arthur, brother-in-law Paul; brother-in-law Art, sister-in-law Kerry and seven nieces and nephews - Trevor, Taylor, Kylee, David, Nancy, Marisa and Daniel.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to the Cashin's Crusaders Team page at www.angelsamongus.org to help continue Marisa's fight to find a cure for Brain Cancer.

There will be a Funeral Mass Saturday, September 14, 2019 at St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church in Apex, N.C. at 11:00am, followed at 1:00pm by a celebration of Marisa's life at Hortons Creek Elementary School, 7615 O'Kelly Chapel Rd. Cary, N.C. Arrangements with Wake Funeral and Cremation Services.

“ As cousins that were close in age, we had many of the same interests. There were Sasha Dolls and sleepovers; Birthday parties and more sleepovers. We were known to build Barbie cities that consumed the entire basement floor of my house by day and at night we would giggle ourselves to sleep. For a time we looked alike, with our long hair and glasses and thought we were so cool looking like twins. We always had a special place in each other’s hearts. The last visit we had was an amazing but short lunch at the diner with my dad and Rosie. She was well and in remission at the time. The conversation we had about life and timing and the way pieces of life’s puzzle fall into place—She was so thankful and grateful for... well... everything and everyone. Not surprised, because that was Marisa. I will hold that very short lunch and the memories of Our conversation close to my heart always. Be at peace my precious cousin. Rest easy. Love you always.

“ A dear friend, that I can say I spent multiple vacations with, laughed with and found a remarkable solace with passed away from the same brain cancer that took Basil. She was a mother, a wife, a friend, a daughter. Her smile was contagious and her heart magnetic. She helped me in my darkest moments by being there for us, while we saw the experts for brain cancer at Duke-her graciousness will live on forever. Brain cancer scares me intimately, it wrecks havoc on my mind and still encompasses my worst fears. My life has irrevocably changed because of Brain Cancer, my sons as well. Every cancer deserves a cure, but please consider this one today. Donate to the link provided in the status below. Marisa Cashin deserves to be remembered, she undoubtedly is a hero, a warrior...a human being that changed the lives of those who she came in contact with.

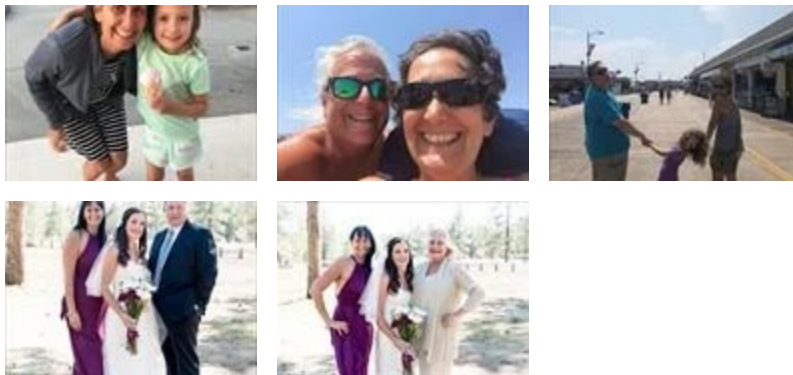

Marc, I am deeply sorry for your tremendous loss. Pete, my heart is with you. There are no words. Numb. Exhaustion... you my friend are a part of my world for life, reach out, please. Forever a Cashin Crusader, Forever LLB.

“ Dear Pete, Marc, Katie, Rose and Zoey,
We have all lost a dear friend and family member. To us Marisa was like a fourth daughter, from the time she was seven. It was our pleasure to see her grow into an amazing woman. For countless reasons she was a hero to us. Just a few of those reasons: her engaging smile and cheerful personality at seven, her serenity when raising Marc alone, her choosing Pete as her life partner (whom we quickly loved), working for her baccalaureate degree, her masters, accomplishing her PHD (while battling), her love of all who knew her, her “never too busy” attitude, and her love shared by all of us. The world is a little darker now without Marisa . Each day we will miss her. I know she would want you: Pete, Rose, Marc, Katie and Zoey to be happy and think of her with her wings, sitting with the Lord. Heaven has gained a bright light.

“ *Dear Pete & Family::
Marisa always lived life forwardl. She lived life to the fullest and always loved serving God at St. Andrew. She was a blessing to all who knew her and loved her.. We thank God for the gift of Marisa's life. Now we pray for you, Pete, at this most difficult time of walking through the valley of grief. Please know that you do not walk alone. The lord is at your side and we, your friends, are walking with you in prayer. Marisa no longer suffers but is with the angels in heaven . I pray for the peace of the Lord to be with you in the difficult days ahead.
Blessings and peace,

Marisa made us all proud and grateful to have known her. Nothing held her back, she was determined to the fullest. I remember many things that made her our hero: her laugh when she was seven, her serenity raising Marc alone, choosing you as a life partner, her baccalaureate degree, her masters, accomplishing her PHD (while battling) and her ability to help anyone. Everyone who knew her will cherish the memories of that relationship.

The world is a little darker now, without our Marisa. Heaven has gained a bright light. I do know she would have you, Marc, Katie and Zoey to be happy and be blessed by her life and care. We are here for you.
