“ I have been thinking about Mark and Philip the pass few days. When I was young, we would go to Virginia to see my grandmother. Sometimes Mark and Philip would be there also. I remember playing with Mark many times at my grandmother's house. I really enjoy that memory. One great quality of Philip is that he has ALWAYS been faithful to his family. When Philip's wife got sick and passed, Philip was faithful to her. When Philip's parents got sick and passed, Philip was faithful to them. I remember how faithful he was to his mother when she got sick and passed. Now Philip has been faithful to his brother Mark when he got sick and passed. Philip, you have ALWAYS been faithful to your wife and family. Philip, May God comfort you with knowing that you are ALWAYS faithful. Philip, I hope that you will enjoy the rest of your life.
