“ He was like a dad... him and Tara... the sad thing is that Keira probably doesn't know... I miss them all... he once told me “bad things happen to good people” and now I know that it was nothing but the truth...

“ *David C. Rice:
In remembrance of Sgt. Mark Edward Rice 8/6/61-7/1/16: Son, brother, friend, proud US Marine*

I would like to THANK all who have commented, prayed, befriended, helped my brother and the rest of my family. It has truly been a blessing seeing the outpouring of love and sympathy, and humorous stories shared by all those who knew Mark and allowed him to affect their lives.

*I can sleep with the knowledge of knowing my brother was a good man; he took care of his family, he worked hard, he laughed, joked, cried, angered, loved God, and I will see him again one day. Lastly, I would like to say – I love my brother, I will always miss my brother, a hole has been left where he once was; it will fill in in time with the great memories as they swarm back into my mind and see the influence he has had on so many people throughout the years.
Thank you and God bless.*

“ To the Rice Family,

My deepest thoughts and prayers go out for you.

I have very fond memories of our families visiting together when I was growing up.

I pray that God wraps his loving/comforting arms around you in this time of great sorrow.
