“ My sympathy to all of Mary's family. Mary and Roger were dear church members whom I got to know when I was an usher at St. Andrew's. After Mass while we were straightening up things in the pews, Roger would stay behind for his prayers and meditation. As they were leaving church, they would stop and chat for a while. Such a devoted couple. I was there when Roger passed out one Sunday as they were leaving. Several church members immediately began CPR while EMS was called and many came. Several of us sat with Mary until Roger was finally revived after many tries. It was a poignant time I will never forget as we all silently prayed for Roger. May Mary now be joyful as she joins her dear Roger in everlasting peace. Sincerely, Ruth Tripp

“ Mary Guay was an ever present face at St. Mary Magdalene for years. Her dedication to her granddaughters, and the community of STMM will ever be in my memory. RIP Mary.
