“ishew was a life long friend of mine. We grew up together in Temple Baptist Church, she was a bridesmaid in our wedding 52 years ago, and we fortunately renewed our friendship several years ago. After that, we and several other friends had lunch together from time to time. Mishew was a devout Christian who lived this life daily. She was there for those who needed her and dearly loved her family. May God be with each member of the family as you walk down the path that lies before you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
