May 27, 1954 - July 25, 2018

Nicholas (Nick) Peter Evangelist, 64, of Apex passed away after a long and brave battle with cancer. He was surrounded by his loving family. Nick was born on May 27, 1954 in Poughkeepsie NY to the late William and Claudia Evangelist. The family moved to Raleigh NC when Nick was 13. He graduated from Sanderson High school and had a long career at IBM. He was married to the love of his life, Sandy, for 36 years. Nick was a hard worker with a gentle soul. He was generous, loving and never met a stranger. He became fast friends with everyone he met. One of Nick's great joys was music. He was a talented drummer and loved nothing more than "jamming" with friends. Nick brought joy to so many, especially his family. He is survived by his loving wife, Sandy, of the home; daughter Pam Floyd and grandson Logan of Raleigh; brother William Evangelist and his wife Georgia of Apex; and best friend, Robbie King of Morrisville, NC, and other family and friends.

A celebration of Nick's life will be held on Monday July 30, 2018 at Sorrell's Grove Baptist Church, 210 Sorrell Grove Church Road, Morrisville NC, 27560). Visitation will be at 1pm followed by a memorial service at 2pm. The family will receive friends at the Fellowship Hall following the service.

“ I was wondering about Nick and found this. I worked with Nick at IBM for most of my career there. He enjoyed talking so much about his family, wife Sandi and his daughter and about his mom. He never met a stranger. I pray for everyone to be confirmed and blessed.

“ Neighbors for over 25 years, it's been a dream. We love you Sandy and feel Nick's loss terribly. Always friendly, welcoming, 'come in and have a cup of coffee' kind of guy, Nick was the best. He even 'loved' my chicken parmigiana! Sandy, I love you, remember, we are here.

“ This is Montaaay just wanting your lovely wife and your family to know how much I miss my coffee drinking/telephone talking buddy. I am sitting on the porch every morning at 0600 drinking my coffee and feeling very saddened because I know my phone is not going to ring. No one to ask me what the game plan is for today. It always was so sweet to hear you call Sandra (Sandi) your lovely wife. I miss you very much but know you are resting in peace.

“ My dear "Cuz" is at peace now. His long battle with his horrible cancer is over. I'm hoping he has been reunited with his parents and heaven, and have embraced each other with loving arms. Nicky will be so missed by all of his family, and friends. He did have a loving nature about him that did make all he met his instant friend. I'm so glad that we got to see Nicky recently when he was still able to have some fun and enjoy us visiting from CT. RIP, Cuz --

“ Nick always had a smile for everyone, and even when he was having a difficult day or struggling with pain, he always asked how I and my family were doing; it's just the kind of caring, thoughtful man he was. His face lit up when he was talking about his passions: the days he spent walking the beach, his "new" vintage car, and his beloved wife Sandy. He was expressive, gentle, passionate, and had a heart filled with love. Nick had an unwavering faith in the Lord, and knew that the Kingdom of God was waiting for him. He will be terribly missed in this life, but he has slipped free of pain and fear, and now he waits for us in Heaven.

“ Nick was a wonderful person and loved everyone. I enjoyed when he played the drums at church. He fought a tough battle with cancer. He will be missed by so many of his friends and family. He is now in no more pain and suffering. He is walking on the streets of gold with his Lotd and Savior. I know he did not want to leave but he leaves behind a wonderful memory and a beautiful smile.

RIP my precious friend!

Love in Christ,
