“ My husband Tom and I knew Norman and Mary Jane well when they lived in Larne, Northern Ireland. I played tennis with Norman when he was a sprightly 70 year old and my husband played golf with him. We socialised regularly with this lovely couple and I had the pleasure of visiting them in Jekyll Island in 2011. I was not aware that Norman had passed and I send our sympathy to his family. I would love to contact Mary Jane.
