“ I not only lost my best gym buddy and friend, but I feel I lost a family too. I have lived the lives of Sherri and Amanda as well as the children through Patti's eyes. Katlyn, your MiMi and I were on the rower when we were waiting for you to be born. I have heard through Patti everything the grandchildren have done, accomplished, and gotten for birthdays and Christmas. She was so proud of you all. I, too, shared that proudness and happiness. Sheri, I have admired all the things you did while the boys were in elementary school. The kindness you showed to those that needed help or a ride to school, and the activities for the kids at your house. Amanda, I prayed for you to find your prince which you did in Mitch. You were a great mother keeping the girls focused and on track. Being a single mom can be hard at times. Patti was so proud of you. Lastly, Jim I loved hearing about your adventures driving the bus and what a great role model you were to the students. I will miss Patti so much. We have laughed together, solved problems together, and compared notes on cleaning and best shopping deals. She and I were like 2 peas in a pod at times. The gym crew knew we were a team. To all of you, I'm so glad I got to share my mornings with Patti. She was special and will always be in my heart. I will miss you too, even though I may have never met you in person.
