

Patricia McGregor Steinmetz

January 26, 1948 - January 4, 2026

Patricia McGregor Steinmetz, 77, passed away on January 4, 2026, in Cary, North Carolina, at the Transitions Hospice facility, with her husband by her side.

Born on January 26, 1948, Patricia earned a BA from LeMoyne College in Syracuse and later completed a Master of Education at Florida Atlantic University. In addition to raising her two sons, she pursued a career in education and social work. Her dedication to helping others extended beyond her professional life through consistent volunteer efforts.

Patricia is survived by her beloved husband, Michael (Mike); sons Paul and Scott; daughter-in-law Cecilee (Paul); and granddaughters Isla and Skye. She will also be missed by her siblings Ginny Giguere (John), Michael McGregor (Cindy), John McGregor (Kathy), and Jane Redmond (Jerry), as well as by her nieces and nephews. Her dear friend Su Martin and many others who knew her mourn her passing.

A lifelong learner and avid reader, Patricia especially enjoyed the works of author Louise Penny. She found joy in travel both near and far, took tai chi classes at the Cary Senior Center, and pursued an interest in learning Spanish. Her generous spirit touched many lives.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, January 26 at Wake Memorial Park Mausoleum in Cary from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., followed by a private burial.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Dorcas Ministries (NeighborUp).

Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure.
