“ Patsy was not only my friend for close to 30 years but it was my honor and privilege to have been her "Hair Dresser" for many of those years. She had such a sweet Spirit and I honestly can't remember many times she didn't have a smile on her face. Above all of this she Loved her Lord and Savior above all else and never missed a chance to tell you about Him. I haven't seen her in quiet a few years but the memories are like yesterday. Rest in Peace my friend until we meet again in Heaven.
