“ After breaking a leg while on a tripto Wet Virginia I wasn't to Heartfields trehab center. When I was being registered, I was told my roommate would be Peggy Riggsbee THE NAME WAS FAMILIAR as I learned we attended the same church, but I had actually never met Peggy. My concern about rooming with someone I did not know was quickly elevated as I got to know this lovely warm, bright Christian who soon became trusted fiend. My stay in rehab was much easier with new friend Peggy Riggsbee. I moved from Cary several yeas ago and d ot get to visit Peggy any more, but every time I saw friends from Westwood, I always asked about my friend Peggy and her wonderful family. TO PEGGY'S Lovely family, Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you now and the difficult days ahead.

My heart aches to learn of the news, and my thoughts are filled with prayers of solace and tranquility for the family during this challenging time. In particular, my thoughts are with my dear friend from years gone by, Jackie. May you find strength in the midst of sorrow, and may you feel the embrace of love and support surrounding you.

“ I never met Ms. Peggy but we shared the same name. I had the pleasure of knowing her daughter Jackie and from the comments I read, I see where Jackie got her sweet spirit from. I offer condolences to the family and know that you will cherish all the memories from a life well lived.

“ Ms. Peggy was truly one of the most precious people I've ever encountered. I had the opportunity to work with her for the last two years as her caregiver while she stayed at the Reserve. We had formed a genuine relationship and I enjoyed seeing her face every morning and our daily conversations. I will surely miss her.

Peggy was an angel sent from Jesus to me. She was a best friend, loyal friend, loving friend, and a wonderful christian. We both loved Jesus and had many wonderful times together. I loved her for the love and kindness she showed to everyone she met. Will miss her always, and will always have her in my heart. Love to the family and they had the best mother in the world.
