

Randall Lamar Croy

September 30, 1962 - July 15, 2020

Randy, 57, of Apex, NC passed away July 15th, 2020 at Rex Hospital. He was the son of the late Linda Faye Welchance.

Randy was a frozen food clerk at Publix Grocery Store for the past 2 years. Prior to this job, he spent 10 years at Kroger working in the same position. He had a heart of gold and loved his family including his dog, Khann. Randy loved spicy foods, country music, and relaxing watching his favorite shows, which included Ancient Aliens, What on Earth, and Smithsonian Time Capsule. Randy was very hardworking and took great pride in his job. He was well liked by all of his co-workers.

Randy was diagnosed with Hodgkin's Lymphoma in December, but worked through March, which demonstrates how committed he was to his job. He successfully completed his chemotherapy in June and had planned on getting married this fall. Unfortunately, he contracted COVID 19 and lost his fight.

Surviving are his fiancée of 10 years, Anna Shover; daughter, Meagan Kelley Croy and her children, Alyssa Faye Black, Cheyenne Nichole Black, Harmony Lynn Black, Isabella Rayne Croy, and Randall Alan Croy; step daughter, Kayla Nicole Hammonds; step daughter, Christina Lynn; step daughter, Paula Shover and daughter in law Casey Marin-Shover and their children, Andrea and Nick Shover; son, Khann Croy; Uncle, Richard Welchance; and several cousins in Tennessee.

PLEASE CONSIDER THAT IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE MEMORIAL SERVICE A FACE COVER/MASK IS REQUIRED.

“ I'll never forget one of the first times I met Randy. Although, I always called him Randall. He was eating jalapeños from a jar by themselves at my mom's house! It made me laugh. I miss him every day. Even though he is not here with us, he will forever be with us at heart and in spirit. I love you Randall!
