“ Barry and Sally Corriher knew Raymond through all his Postal Family at all the meetings and conventions. This special person worked hard to raise money for the Junior's for trips and the scholarships. He was our Master Sargent at Arms and would care for everyone. His smile made you smile and his stories made you laugh. He will be missed greatly. God be with you Nancy and it was wonderful to see you at the state convention.

“ My memories of Raymond go back some over 30 years as a coworker of Nancys. He was always a pleasure to be around. He was a class act, a true gentleman and knew how to enjoy life. He loved God his family, and his country. He was a conisour of good eating and knew where to find the best banana pudding and knew the difference between a dried apple apple jack and the imitation ones. I sure wish I could sneak one more apple jack by Mrs Nancy to him. I'm betting my grand momma or his or maybe both have already hooked him up with some far better than I will ever get down here again. Enjoy your reward you deserve it. Happy Trails until we meet again .
