“ I was very sorry to hear about Dick's death. I worked for Univac when Dick came on board after the RCA acquisition. He gave me a great education on what we had just acquired hardware/market wise and I helped him acclamate to the the Univac culture. We became very good friends and had many good times. I'm truly sorry we lost touch with each other. Many time over the years I thought of Dick but for one reason or another I would slip into my "doing nothing about it form" and here we are, ashamed of my forgetfullnes and missing a good friend without saying good bye.
May God keep you and the family strong.
