“ My brother Bob was my cherished playmate when we were growing up in a family of seven children. He was the apple of our Dad’s eye when he was born...being the first boy. Bobby, as he was called then, was named after our Dad, Robert James Trew. He had an awesome sense of humor, loved games indoor (checkers) and outdoor (biking, baseball and football). He loved to walk and jog. Always an optimist, Bob and Diane always kept in contact by bringing daughters Heather and Robin to visit both sets of Parents (Grandparents to the girls) and to check in with all the family members in Michigan. They made this journey from North Carolina at least once a year. We will always love and miss our beloved brother, uncle, husband of Diane, and father to our nieces Heather and Robin. Life is too short, but Bobby lived it all 💕🧐💕
